NSW State Committee Event | 18 March 2018 | Part A: Assisting IVF with CHM and Acupuncture | Part B: TCM Treatment for Hypertension

Dear Member

Please see below regarding two upcoming NSW State Committee CPD events.

Part A: Assisting IVF with CHM and Acupuncture

Part B: TCM Treatment for Hypertension

Presented by Ms Jian Jiang & Dr Yan Li

Part A:

Infertility affects about 1 in 6 Australian couples of reproductive age. Advanced fertility treatment including IVF become common practice. Acupuncture alone, or combines with Chinese herbal medicine (CHM) has been proven to be a useful method may boost the success rates for IVF. Learning how to support the IVF client with acupuncture and Chinese herbal medicine remains a big challenge for many practitioners. This seminar will outline Western medicine (WM) perspective on IVF protocols, explore the TCM management strategies and application to support IVF clients through the case studies, analyse current research in efficacy and mechanism of acupuncture and Chinese herbal medicine for assisting IVF, and share the personal practical ideas and invaluable experience of the speaker

Upon the successful completion of the seminar, participants should be able to:

- outline the WM perspective on IVF,
- critique and assess the researches on IVF with acupuncture and CHM,
- describe and apply the acupuncture and CHM, management strategies and method for assisting IVF.

Part B:

Hypertension is one of the most common diseases which TCM practitioners may come across in clinical settings. TCM has strengths in its prevention, Chinese Herbal medicine (CHM) and acupuncture treatment, avoidance of developing into critical status and reduction of side effects of antihypertensive agents. Thus, it is beneficial for TCM practitioners to have knowledge in this field.

Upon the successful completion of this seminar, participants will:

- understand CHM and acupuncture treatment for hypertension according to different syndromes and some experienced CHM and acupoints for hypertension,
- its strengths and limitations,
- be able to utilise into practice.
