

TAS State Committee Event | Medical Qigong | 26 August 2018

Presented by Bill Pearson

The style of Medical Qigong to be shared in this workshop is:

- Important for practitioners regarding their own balance physically and emotionally.
- Important for general health maintenance as it clears stagnation and releases Qi.
- Suitable to be taught to patients.
- Rarely seen or taught in Australia.

Participants will learn all organ/system Medical Qigong exercises, rebalance the organ systems and restore tissue to its normal function.

Notes will be provided by the presenter and participants will slowly work through each system. This is very much a physical workshop so that participants can take away the physical and spiritual knowledge.

About the presenter/s

Bill has been studying, teaching and practising Medical Qigong for over 20 years.

He has taught workshops throughout Australia, in Tokyo and Osaka and at the China Academy and Minzu University in Beijing. He has held more than 50 workshops for Government and private business in Tasmania.
