VIC State Committee Event | 27 May 2018

Japanese Acupuncture in the treatment of depression and anxiety

Presented by: Caleb MORTENSEN

Having a solid understanding of the patterns underpinning common mental health issues is of ultimate value to the treatment of these patients. Theory and treatment come together under the umbrella of Japanese Acupuncture but these are lessons that are applicable to any styles of Oriental Medicine.

In this seminar, you will learn:

- Deeper understanding of the energetic pathways of Mental Health
- The Shen, the Hun and the Po and how they interact
- Treatment protocols for depression and anxiety
- Needling and Moxibustion pros and cons in Mental Health

About the presenter

Caleb Mortensen has been in practice since 2002. In 2003 he undertook a further 10 year apprenticeship under the guidance of Katsuhiko Okuma Sensei. This coincided with 10 years practice in the field of Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation. In private practice, the treatment of depression and anxiety has always been a consistent aspect.
